SECOND OFFICE ACTION

The P.R. Trademark Office (the "P.R.T.O.") takes notice of your answer to our Office Action filed June 9, 2022. However, to proceed with the examination of the mark, the P.R.T.O. requires the Applicant to amend the application as follows:

Description of Goods is Overly Broad:

Rule 20 of the Trademark Registry Procedure Code of the Department of State for The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (hereinafter, the Rules) provides that applications for registration of trademarks must include a list of the goods or services in relation to which a Trademark registration is desired.

An application of a mark must specify the goods or services on or in connection with which the Applicant uses, the mark in commerce. The identification should set forth common names, using terminology that is generally understood. The identification of goods or services must be specific, definite, clear, accurate, and concise. See In re Societe Generale des Eaux Minerales de Vittel S.A.,¹ USPQ2d 1296 (TTAB 1986), reversed on other grounds, 824 F.2d 957 (Fed. Cir. 1987); Procter & Gamble Co. v. Economics Laboratory, Inc., 175 USPQ 505 (TTAB 1972), modified without opinion, 498 F.2d 1406 (C.C.P.A. 1974); In re Cardinal Laboratories, Inc., 149 USPQ 709 (TTAB 1966); California Spray-Chemical Corp. v. Osmose Wood Preserving Co. of America, Inc., 102 USPQ 321 (Comm'r Pats. 1954); Ex parte A.C. Gilbert Co., 99 USPQ 344 (Comm'r Pats. 1953).

The wording: "Tabletop games; gymnastic and sporting articles not included in other classes, namely, gymnastic apparatus, balls for sports, basketballs, rounders sets; Christmas tree decorations; Toys for babies, pre-school children, children generally; Kits for building outdoor play equipment; outdoor play equipment, namely, playhouses; playing equipment, namely, climbing frames; playing equipment, namely, dome-shaped climbing frames; toy houses; playing equipment, namely, outdoor play sets; swings; see-saws; playing slides; play swimming pools; playing equipment, namely, sandboxes for children; water toys; table tennis tables; pool tables; snooker tables; air hockey tables; pucks and mallets for tabletop hockey games; tabletop games, namely, tabletop football tables; inflatable toys, namely, inflatable structures with windows shaped like castles in which children can safely jump around and play; play kitchens; role playing toys in the nature of play sets for children to imitate real life occupations; Indoor play apparatus for children, namely, play mats and play houses; dolls; dolls' clothes; dolls' houses; furniture for dolls' house; video game consoles; toy vehicles; toys, namely, toy garages; ride-on toys; trampolines; safety mats for play equipment; trampoline protective pads; fitted covers for trampolines; playing sand box accessories; water tables being for playing water toys; tables for playing games, sand playing, water playing; table tennis bats and balls; outdoor games, namely, petanque set; playing balls; baseball bat and ball sets; baseball sets comprising bats and balls; sporting articles, namely, cricket sets including cricket bats and cricket balls; tennis sets comprised tennis racquets, tennis balls; badminton sets; soccer goals; ring games; croquet sets; dominoes; Toy bowling games; toy scooters; push-toys; play easels; cleanable children's painting screens; bouncers for children in the nature of miniature trampoline with hand rails; play climbing nets; play rope ladders; play water cascade toys; tracks for guiding toy vehicles." under International Class 028, contains language that isn't specific enough therefore, resulting in a broad description of the products.

The Registry has discretion to require the degree of specificity necessary to identify the goods or services in relation to which the mark is used in the commerce of Puerto Rico.

The applicant may adopt the following recitation of goods, if accurate:

Applicant is advised to examine the International Classification of Goods and Services established under the Nice Agreement, Tenth Edition, to describe the products or services that are used commercially in Puerto Rico. See <http://www.wipo.int/classifications/nice/es/>.

Note that Rule 33 of the Rules provides that the applicant may amend his application during the review of the application, when required by the Examining Attorney or other official reasons. The applicant may amend his application to clarify or limit, but not to extend the identification of goods or services. Given the above, the Examining Attorney requires that the applicant modify and amend its application for renewal as indicated in this Office Action or otherwise show cause why this amendment is not necessary.

In light of the aforementioned, the Examiner requires the Applicant to modify and/or amend the application for registration as provided herein or, otherwise, show cause why such modification is not required.

According to Rule 36 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure amendments filed must be specified in a written and signed statement by the Applicant or its Representative. Neither Applicant nor its Representative shall rewrite, alter, modify, erase or include words in a pending application. However, the Puerto Rico Trademark Office (PRTTO) may amend the said application with the Applicant's consent.

According to Rule 27 of Puerto Rico's Trademark Rules of Procedure, if the PRTTO does not receive a response to the abovementioned remarks within ninety (90) days, the Application shall be considered abandoned.

Note: Please refer to the name of the Examining Attorney. The office action response shall be filed online at <https://prtmfiling.f1hst.com/> using the transaction office action response. The cost for the said filing is $15.00. If you have any questions via email to jpagan@estado.pr.gov
